The planning committee decided that there would not be a theme for the meeting. However, there will be some sort of acknowledgement of the 50th annual meeting. Adewale Troutman and Eric Dishman have been contacted as potential keynote speakers. Neither has been confirmed. OHSU Psychiatrist, Erick Turner, has been confirmed as a speaker and will talk about publication bias. His published paper on the subject led to his being listed among the top ten red-hot research papers of 2008. Exhibitors have been contacted with instructions to save the date.
